

$200.00

REWARD

The Delaware River Fisherman's Association will pay a bounty of $200.00 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons caught breaking into a fisherman's car while he or she is on the river fishing. The information should be turned into the local law enforcement authorities and upon the apprehension of the individual or individuals involved a claim can be filed through the mail by writing the Delaware River Fisherman's Association care of P.O. Box 9, Titusville, New Jersey 08560.

The Delaware River Fisherman's Association is a non profit association of concerned sportsmen, organizations and businesses who's purpose is to see the river's fisheries, scenic beauty and water quality improved and preserved for future generations. If you wish to find out more about the D.R.F.A. you can write to the above post office box or attend the monthly meeting which is held the last Thursday of the month at the Sportsmen's Center on route 130 in Bordentown, New Jersey at 7:30 P.M.
